October 16-17-Colt Starting Challenge

Logan Barker, treasurer discussed treasury report

Saddle for Colt Starting Challenge has been ordered and paid for from FX Saddles. Expected to arrive within 6 weeks.

Suggestion was made to have our vendors set up on the concrete pad in the arena this year for the Colt Starting Challenge. It will not only save money but be more inviting and the vendors will be able to watch the Challenge and their booth. All members agreed.

County Saddlery would like to come speak to our group for a $125 charge. No decision was made.

Leslie Keck is going to contact the Halifax mounted search and rescue group about speaking to SEFHA in August.

7:30 Meeting was adjourned

Trainers Committee for Colt Starting Challenge met following the meeting. Competitors were chosen.

Business:

Bill Scott presented the information for the Christmas Parade in Chatham. It will be December 5 at 11:00 a.m. Riders are to meet together on 685 in Chatham across from the Chatham Hall's north entrance at the old imagination station building. Anyone who wishes to come and ride horses or wishes to just walk or ride in the truck with us are invited.

We had guest speakers: Dr. Suzanne Newcomb from Cherrystone Vet and Tommy Barron, FSTR with Southern States. They spoke to the group about preparing your horse for the winter, specifically on the geriatric horse.

There will be no December meeting.
