

2018 SEFHA MEETING MINUTES

SEFHA Meeting

January 9, 2018

El Cazador Mexican Restaurant, Chatham, VA

13 Attendees

Reggie Meads, Vice President, opened the meeting with a word of prayer.

David Tuggle, President began the meeting requesting our thoughts and prayers to be with Judy Schweppe during her treatments and Brock & Leisha Griffith and family and the loss of their barn, due to fire. SEFHA members agreed to a "Re-Building Party" to help Brock & Leisha rebuild their barn in Graham, NC. We will let you know the date as quick as they are able to get it going.

February 24, 2018 - Southern States Chatham Coop & Cherrystone Vet are teaming up again this year for another Coggins Clinic at Southern States. Load up your horses and get your yearly vaccines and coggins and get that awesome discount and get out of paying that farm visit fee!

All ads for the Colt Starting Challenge should be turned in by January 15, 2018.

We have new entertainment joining us this year at the Colt Starting Challenge - Willow Griffith! with an exciting new show.

February 16th - Come anytime that day and help setup the event and at 5:00 PM SEFHA is having a dinner for all of the volunteers involved with the Colt Starting Challenge. Come have fun fellow-shiping with the association members, trainers and judges.

If you haven't been assigned a job or volunteered for one, it's not too late. We can always use the help so come on and slip your gloves and work boots on :) and have some fun making this a event a successful one.

SEFHA Meeting

March 13, 2018

El Cazador Mexican Restaurant, Chatham, VA

17 Attendees

Reggie Meads, Vice President, opened the meeting with a word of prayer.

David Tuggle, President began meeting the discussion of the 2018 Colt Starting Challenge and what a great success it was! Great turn out and everything ran extremely smooth. Great feedback from guests, participants & the association's volunteers. Looking forward to next year's event.

During the month of April, SEFHA is hosting a St Jude Children's Hospital hourly log. All riders should log the hours they ride or non-riders the time they spend with their horses. Each participant should collect money from sponsors to turn in at the May SEFHA meeting to donate to St Jude. The participant with the most earned hours will win a prize and the participant with the most earned money will win a prize. It is fun and done for a really great cause, so please join us to raise a great amount of money to help St Jude.

May 5 -SEFHA will host a Mark Noel Horsemanship Clinic at Reggie Meads Farm in Gretna, VA at 10:00 AM.

SEFHA Meeting

El Cazador Mexican Restaurant - Chatham, VA 19 Attendees

So many of us enjoyed the Taylor McIntosh clinic and are excited to announce a come back!! Spring of 2019 we are welcoming him back to conduct another clinic for us to continue our education of the horse and our horsemanship.

On September 22, 2018 SEFHA and Tuggle Farm will be hosting an Advanced Horsemanship Helping Hands Clinic exclusively for members. Join us at Tuggle Farm at 10:00AM with your horse or just come and audit the event. We have a lot of fun helping each other better ourselves as riders and as a horseman. We borrow ideas from each other and lend advice on multiple "issues". The goal is to educate ourselves to become better, more confident horsemen all around.

Not a member? Not a problem! Become a member today... $25 single yearly membership or your entire family for just $50. Contact us at sefha1@gmail.com or visit our website at www.sefha.net for more information.

October 6, 2018 - Southern States and SEFHA are partnering together to host a Tack Swap Meet 8AM-Noon at Southern States in Chatham, VA. You are welcome to come set up a table and sell tack on the lawn in front or come and do some shopping.

On October 20, 2018 SEFHA will be hosting our first ever TRAILER RODEO! Want to learn how to pull a trailer? Come to Reggie Meade's farm in Gretna at 10:00 AM and we will give you a lesson on pulling, backing and parking a horse trailer.

Colt Starting Program Ad Contracts will be available at our September Meeting.
