

March 12, 2019
SEFHA Meeting
El Cazador Mexican Restaurant-Chatham, Virginia
13 Attendees

David Tuggle called the meeting to order.

The members decided to have the Saint Jude's ride in May. Participants are to collect donations for sponsorship and keep up with the hours they ride. Awards will be given for the longest riding period and the most money collected. Awards will be given at the June meeting.

We will have a Helping Hands Clinic on May 18th at Reggie Meade's farm. The clinic will start at 10:00 am. Lunch will be pot luck. Bring your best goodies.

Taylor McIntosh will be hosting a clinic at Averett University Equestrian Center on June 15th and 16th. There were 15 spots and all have been reserved. Auditors are welcome to come and enjoy the training.

Terry Knowles worked Taylor McIntosh's display booth at the Colt Starting Challenge. He and his family were affected by the tornado that came through Lee County, Alabama. Terry also works for the fire and rescue in Lee County. To help him and his family you can send donations to his church at Cornerstonebuzz.org or through the Samaritan's Purse at spvolunteer.org. Please keep them in your prayers.

Hope to see everyone at the April meeting.
